

Art and colouring contest at wellness expo

The Star
11/5/2011

KUCHING: An art and colouring contest is among the side activities at the upcoming Sarawak Health, Wellness, Beauty and Halal Expo.

The competition is divided into two categories with one for Primary Two to Four pupils and the other one for Primary Five to Form One students.

The winners in each category will receive attractive prizes.

For the lower primary school category, the pupils are required to colour and decorate "get well" cards. The contest will be held on June 10 from 2pm to 4pm.

For the older category, the students are required to colour and decorate cup. The contest will be held on June 12 from 10.30am to 12.30pm.

The Sarawak Health, Wellness,

Beauty and Halal Expo organizer has roped in Lawrence Art Tuition Centre to organize both the art and colouring contest which will be held simultaneously with the expo at Permata Exhibition Hall.

Registration forms for the contest can be obtained from Lawrence Art Tuition Centre at Kenyalang Park Shopping Centre (tel: 082-482952/019-8659229). Closing date to submit the registration form is May 25.

Organised by Eagle Interactive Sdn Bhd, the expo is held from June 10 to 12.

Various activities have been lined up for the expo including an exhibition of health and beauty products, health screenings and talks, and beauty demonstration.

For details on the expo, contact Eagle Interactive at 082-238513.

Sealed deal: Eagle Interactive CEO Tiong Soon King (second left) exchanging the collaboration agreement with Lawrence Ng of Lawrence Art Tuition Centre.